Bob: Alright, let's get started. We need to align on the Q3 marketing budget. Alice, how are we looking?

Alice: We have $50,000 allocated for social media ads. But I think we should shift $10,000 of that to influencer sponsorships.

Bob: That sounds like a great idea. The ROI on influencers has been amazing lately. Alice, can you draft a proposal for the influencer strategy by Friday?

Alice: Sure thing, I will get that done.

Charlie: What about the new website launch? Are we still on track for next month?

Bob: Yes, but we need the final copy from the design team. Charlie, can you follow up with them tomorrow?

Charlie: Will do. I'll make sure they deliver the copy by Wednesday.

Bob: Excellent. I feel very positive about this quarter. Let's reconvene next week.
